LETTER CARRIERS TO GIVE A VAUDEVILLE

Be Last Solicitation of Public Patronage.

The vaudeville entertainment and ball to be given in Tomlinson Hall next Tuesday night by the Indianapolis Letter Carriers' Association will be the last public entertainment or function which that association can give and to which it can charge solicitations of all kinds for public patronage or favor, by an order from the Postoffice Department in Washington.

A law of the Postoffice Department has been in force for some time to the effect that postal authorities must not solicit patronage or gifts of any kind from the public, or by any scheme draw on the public for day night. The authorities allowed the Tomlinson Hall entertainment to be given because arrangements had been so far advanced that to stop them would have entailed heavy loss upon those giving it.

Among those who will contribute to the programme are Harry Porter, Russell owell, Miss Augusta Rentsch, Walter Percy Pfaff, Dr. Merle H. Pritchard, Edward S. Walker, Miss Maud J. Baker, the Star Male Quartet, the Smithson children and Miss Jessie Montez Jay. Music will be furnished by Belser's Orchestra, and a ball will follow the programme.

The Letter Carriers' Association is an orassociations of mutual helpfulness, LAFAYETTE, Ind., June 7 .- At the home of the bride's parents at 11 o'clock this morning, Miss Alice Barcus was united in marriage to Louis D. Endsley, instructor in the locomotive laboratory at Purdue University, and one of the best-known athletes who ever wore the old gold and black uniform. Many Purdue professors, students and alumni attended the wedding, which was simple, though beautiful. The bride was gowned in white silk muslin over silk and carried roses. The maid of honor, Miss Alice Barr, of Bluffton, wore pink silk muslin. Rev. Charles S. Lewis, rector of St. John's Church, performed the ceremony. Professor Fritz Ernst, of Purdue, was best man. Mr. Endsley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Endsley, of Richmond, is a Purdue graduate and a member of the faculty. The bride is a graduate of Lafayette High School. The couple left for Detroit, whence they will take a lake trip. WILL CELEBRATE THE Many out-of-town guests were present. CENTURY CLUB DINNER.

The Becoming Fichu.

Philadelphia Telegraph. The fichu is an especially practical bit adornment, because it can be made of any sort of material, and it is not at all neces sary that the material should match the dress. White fichus are worn with black as well as white frocks, and with all the pale tints, and a black chiffon fichu with a big black picture hat is attractive, with simple all-white frocks. If one does not wish to get fichus to match all her summer dresses, she may buy one of black and one of white, the black of chiffon or Spanish lace, and the white of chiffon, mull or point d'esprit, and she will be able to get picturesque effects with almost any one of her gowns. If she would get a very dressy effect with a simple frock she should get chiffen paint it in water colors with pompadour roses. Large bunches of roses are painted The Study Club will give a luncheon at the tip of the ends, which are tied in a sash at the back. Such a fichu, either black or white, will give the plainest winte mull or black silk dress an air of novelty and distinction. It is pretty to carry out the pompadour effect further by adding a wreath of pale pink and blue roses on the under brim of the picture hat.

The meeting was addressed last night by Rev. Z. T. Sweeney, of Columbus. Among other things, the condition of the streets of Irvington were discussed, and it was the concensus of opinion that some action should be taken to have them scraped and put into passable condition. Not in the history of the suburb have the streets been so neglected as this spring, and it is well-nigh impossible to drive over them. The question of track elevation at Washington street and the Belt road was also
